Dilapidated condition of Gurdwaras in Pakistan

5309. SHRI VARINDER SINGH BAJWA: Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have brought to the notice of President of Pakistan during his recent visit to this country the dilapidated condition of some Sikh historical Gurdwaras in Pakistan; and

(b) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS
(SHRI E. AHAMMED): (a) and (b) The issue of Sikh Gurdwaras was not discussed during the recent visit of President Musharraf to India. India and Pakistan are committed under the para (iii) of the 1974 Bilateral Protocol on Visit to Religious Shrines to continue efforts to ensure that places of religious worship mentioned in the protocol are properly maintained and their sanctity preserved. The Government has raised this matter with the Government of Pakistan from time to time.
